Pavlowa Gives New Dances With

record. The grace, the charm, and the astounding agility of this remarkable young Russian woman were never more in evidence and were never more enthusiastically ap-plauded. In these days of the degeneracy of the dance into an imitation of the orgies of the black slaves that were imported from Africa, it was like a breath of spring der the direction of Theodore Stier. and the programme included an "Oriental Fantasy," "Amarilla," a gypsy ental Fantasy, "Amarilia," a gypsy ballet founded on a folk song, and divertissements. The composers whose music served to present the dances were Seroff, Mousorgski, Rimsky-Korsakoff, Drigo, Giazounov, Strauss. Paderewski, Tschaikowsky, Schubert, Glinka, Linke and Arens. Most of the programme was new and all of it was interesting. The grace and the witchery of Mme. Pavlowa were never more in evidence. Mr. Novikoff made us almost forget Mr. Mordkin and the whole company was

New Dances With Her Old Charm

The Traviata, at the Metropolitan Opera House last night, drew the strength of the subscription. The performance, under the direction of Mr. Polacco, moved smoothly. Frieda and was especially charming in the scene with the elder Germont, graphically portrayed by Amato. Cristally without a license. This makes twenty-nine convicts he has pardoned since Friday and 1.190 since he became Govern House as the "Incomparable" Bada was Gastone, Reachiglian was the Mancer, began a two weeks' engagement that promises to make a Dootor Grenvil.

Well worth seeing.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 7.—Gov. Cole L. Blease has liberated eight prisoners convicted of murder or mansiaughter, two of arson, three of larceny and one of practicing dentistry without a license. This makes twenty-nine convicts he has pardoned since Friday and 1.190 since he became Governo in January, 1911.

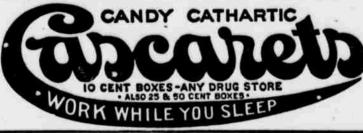

He told a committee of the Legislature that he intended to empty the State "pen" by August and turn it into an insane asylum. There are 186 prisoners left.
